Doar says murder verdict not a factor in any action taken against BPD chief

By MICHAEL DANIELS

Bethel Police Chief Alan Carr is "unavailable to the department" this week, Town Manager Jim Doar told The Citizen Monday.

In the police station, a few steps away from Doar's office, the chief's desk had been stripped of his personal belongings.

But the town manager refused to confirm or deny persistent rumors that after five years as Bethel's chief, the 25-year State

Doar said he expected to be able to make a formal announcement after the five-day period is passed.

A call Tuesday to Carr was not returned.

Since the weekend, rumors Carr had been fired, have been circulating, many of them attributing such an action to the Bethel Police Department's response in February to what appeared at first to be a fatal car-train accident in Town manager said he expects to make a statement after five-day appeal period has passed.

Doar cited employee-confidentiality considerations; and noted that if and when a town manager does fire, or otherwise discipline an employee, the employee has five business days to appeal to the Board of Selectmen.

The BPD (and other agencies involved) initially handled the matter as an accidental-death investigation, which has less-stringent protocols than a murder investigation.

D. Buker to throw out first pitch at Saturday's Sox game

Newry's Darren Buker, an avid fan of Sunday River, Maine Handicapped Skiing and the Boston Red Sox, has been selected to throw the opening pitch at the Red Sox-Cleveland Indians game on Saturday, Oct. 3 at 7 p.m.

"I am most excited to meet the players, especially David Ortiz!" said Buker. "I have been practicing my pitches every day to get ready."

Saturday evening's game will be the first Red Sox game he will have ever watched live at Fenway Park.

Buker has been a part of the Maine Handicapped Skiing program at Sunday River since he was 3 years old.

In the winter, he enjoys both skiing and snowboarding at Sunday River while his father, Raymond, also an avid skier, works for the resort as a road maintenance manager.

For Saturday's baseball event, Sunday River is using one of its shuttle buses to transport Buker and his family, as well as 20 members from his father's resort team and

Woodstock voters will decide best way to handle new wind-farm taxes

By ALISON ALOISIO

Woodstock voters may be asked to "shelter" new tax valuation generated by a new wind tower project in order to financially benefit the town and the towers.

Patriot Renewables LLC is proposing to build 12 towers as part of the Spruce Mountain Wind Project.

The project, if approved by the Planning Board, is expected to be completed next year, according to town officials.

The estimated value of the project is approximately $34.5 million, which would generate significant new taxes for Woodstock, beginning in 2011.

But the added valuation would also mean a drop in state education and revenue sharing subsidy and in-own project costs.

A TIF proposal was prepared on behalf of Patriot by Eaton Peabody Consulting Group, LLC, of Augusta, and presented recently to Woodstock selectmen by Mathew Eddy.

TIF steps

To set up a TIF, the valuation for property in the new development area is frozen, according to Eddy's presentation.

As the valuation is projected to increase above the frozen level, TIF revenues derive from taxes on the "incremental" new value. The revenue creased county taxes.

To "shelter" against those adjustments and instead funnel some Patriot money directly into town projects, Patriot is proposing to enter into tax increment financing (TIF) with Woodstock.

Patriot would also be able to use some of the money for its

Supporters hope to ring up Bryant Pond park with foundations stones of the past

By ALISON ALOISIO

Wanted: Old granite foundation stones. Looking for a more economical way to landscape Bryant Pond's "Remembrance Park," the Remembrance Park Committee has hit on a plan that would also incorporate more history into the project.

Located on the common next to the Post Office, the park was the brainchild of sculptor Gil Whitman.

He created a 14-foot-tall metal likeness of a hand-crank telephone, reflecting Bryant Pond's history as the last hand-crank phone company in the U.S.

The sculpture was dedicated last year. Another idea proposed by Whitman was a low stone wall around the common topped with flat, engraved stones. People could purchase engraved stones in remembrance of loved ones.

People have not bought into the project as much as hoped, so the committee has looked into other alternatives for the stonework.

The group recently hit on the idea of using eight pieces of granite from the old Woodstock High School foundation as part of a border around the common.

Although the uncut stones are of different sizes, Town Manager Vern Maxfield said they can be broken into pieces to fit the landscaping needs.

He estimates there is enough stone to go around approximately one-third of the common's perimeter.

Using the stones, said committee member Ruth Feeney, "is more in keeping with his-

Two items go to voters at Town Meeting Monday

There will be a special Bethel Town Meeting Monday evening, at which voters will be asked to approve a cooperative agreement for the Bethel Regional Airport and to approve a deed restriction on a parcel of Davis Park.

The cooperative agreement is between the town, the Federal Aviation Administration, the Maine Department of Transportation, and Lifelight and transfers $65,500 of airport entitlement funds to MDOT, who will then submit a grant to the FAA in order to pay Lifelight directly for an Automated Weather Observation System (AWOS) that was installed at the Bethel Airport.

If voters approve the arrangement, Lifelight has agreed to maintain the AWOS system for the life of the unit (estimated to be 20 years).

The deed-restriction article is a condition of DEP's approval for the skateboard park at Davis Park and ensures that no development occurs between the park and the Androscoggin River, and that the parcel of land will remain a permanent buffer.

The special Town Meeting will be held in the Town Office meeting room, and will begin at 6:30.

Greenwood man pleads guilty on cocaine charges

By M. DIRK LANGEVELD,
Sun Media Wire

A 32-year-old Greenwood man will return to court for sentencing at a later date after pleading guilty to drug trafficking charges on Monday.

Frank Andrew Damon III, of Richardson Hollow Road, admitted in Oxford County Superior Court to trafficking in cocaine and conspiracy to commit trafficking in cocaine. Damon also chose not to contest the forfeiture of $2,166 in cash and nine firearms.

Assistant Attorney General David Fisher said Damon was charged with being in possession of 71 grams of cocaine when police searched his camper in November. Police also found scales, sandwich bags, money and firearms — four shotguns, three rifles and two pistols, Fisher said.

Police also arrested Cindy Estep, 54, of Otisfield and Bruce E. Dunlap, 36, of Oxford on cocaine trafficking charges in November. Last month, Estep pleaded guilty to cocaine trafficking and agreed to the forfeiture of $8,625 and four firearms. Her sentencing date was delayed for six months.

Fisher said Estep told police she picked up cocaine in

AND WOMEN ARE STILL CHATTEL?

To the Editor:

In the 1850s American preachers used selected texts of the Bible to demonstrate that God approved of slavery. In fact Christ himself says only a word or two about the practice, and that is in regards to an owner treating his slave fairly. Up until the early part of the last century the same sort of preachers from one end of this country to the other "proved" using the Bible that God didn't want women being equal to their men. Women were chattel.

In my own lifetime in the Southwestern church in which I was raised I personally heard more than one preacher exhorting the congregation on the Bible's teachings regarding miscegenation. The Bible is clearly against a man of one race marrying a woman of another. According at one time or another too many preachers to count these were all Christian "traditions" set by the Christian God back "in the beginning of time." Yet most of us now see them as clearly being prejudiced, bigoted, and antithetical to our American character and belief in fairness and justice for all.

The point is to avoid hypocrisy. If one Biblical "rule" must be the law of the land then they all must be. If we are to deny gays their right to marry because of a Biblical verse then we must reinstitute slavery, deny women's suffrage and property rights, arrest men and women who are married to those of another race, and let's not forget stoning those adulterers and adulteresses. One can hardly claim it is only because of Biblical law that we make murder and theft illegal and then allow people in this country to "put other gods before them." If we are going to align our civil law to Biblical law as some Muslim nations align their civil law to Sharia law then we must not allow these people to live here who worship other gods (or even Our god in the wrong way...) and must punish those who curse.

Furthermore marriage is not solely a "Christian" virtue. If it were tens of millions of Americans could not be truly married, since they were married by military commanders, Rabbis, Imams, Justices of the Peace, or even Notary Publics (In Colorado couples may even solemnize their own marriage). Using such reasoning billions of people around the world today are not married and untold millions of people in the past could not have been married before Christianity (or even Judaism which dates to around 1900 BC with Abraham) came into being. No, marriage is and has always been a civil contract between two people who love each other and wish to spend the rest of their lives together. If they further wish to have the ceremony performed by a preacher or priest and solemnized by their particular faith they have that right. Worrying that "my" marriage is in some way affected by someone else's marriage because it is different in whatever way is paranoia. I defy any man to stand in front of me and tell me that because gay men and women have been allowed to marry in this country my bonds to my wife have been lessened in any way. One might note that Massachusetts, where gay marriage has been the law for some time, has one of the very lowest rates of divorce in the country. Apparently if gay marriage threatens "traditional" marriage then traditional marriage could do with a lot more of the threat.

WE CAN READ IT FOR OURSELVES

To the Editor:

I quote Rev. Keith Hamel (Citizen 9/24): "Like it or not, our nation was established on Biblical teachings."

My history lessons also taught that our nation was established on separation of church, state and freedom of religion. I think this means I have a right to interpret the Bible for myself.

I remember my mother's Women's magazine of the '40s and '50s had a popular item each month: "How Can This Marriage Be Saved?" Sometime in the '60s or '70s it changed to "Should This Marriage Be Saved?" Now we see couples asking should we marry or just live together? There is no law against heterosexual couples relate. The concept of marriage has evolved; people have choices. No one has to be stuck in a miserable situation.

There are religions that welcome all people, gay or straight. Why should they be told this is wrong? The fear mongering that homosexuality will be taught in the schools is ridiculous. What must be taught in schools is tolerance! Let freedom ring.

WHAT BIBLE IS HE READING?

To the Editor:

The Rev. Mr. Hamel must be referring a different Bible from the one I read. Rev. Hamel claims "God set forth the rules and regulations on marriage way back in the beginning of time." As a matter of fact, Jesus said there will be no marriage whatsoever in heaven. Does this mean that marriage is bad?

A vast majority of the references to marriage in the Old Testament refer, not to the sanctity or "rules" of marriage, but to the giving of daughters as war trophies. For example, David killed 200 Philistines and presented their foreskins to Saul, who then gave David his daughter, Michal, in marriage. Marrying women outside the tribe was deemed "a terrible wickedness" and "unfaithful to God." From Genesis on, men marry more than one wife and keep many concubines as well. ("Then Jacob put his children and wives on camels," "Esau took his wives from the women of Caanan and many concubines.") Many passages forbid divorce and hold that anyone who remarries commits adultery. Are we really expected to follow these Biblical examples today?

That was then, this is now. One source of Biblical scholarship observes that there is no term for homosexual orientation in the Bible. The authors of the Bible did not understand sexual orientation and did not write about it. While the Bible does speak against rape, child abuse, ritual sex in pagan temples, and sexual orgies, it is silent on loving, committed same sex partnerships, just as it is about space travel, genetic research and the Internet.

Most people have friends or relatives who live in love and harmony and faithfulness with a partner of the same sex. Jesus said, "Faith, hope and love, but the greatest of these is love." I see little love in the hostile reactions of the opponents of same sex marriage. I fail to understand their perverse preoccupation with the intimate lives of others who are harming no one. Thoughtful citizens who truly love their neighbors will vote "No" on question one.

NOT ENTITLED TO INFLICT THEIR BELIEFS

To the Editor:

While the sincerity of the "Yes On One" Letter in the 9/24/09 Citizen might not be in question, its motive and assertions must be questioned. As far as the assertion that our nation was "established on biblical teachings" is concerned, in order to be a completely truthful statement it must also include the deep history, other religions and philosophical ideas that contributed to the collective wisdom of our Founding Fathers. They studied, discussed and learned from all that and fashioned a system of government that could avoid the pitfalls of the past and ensure a better life and future for all Americans, believers and non-believers alike.

Denial of equality in marriage to same sex couples is based on questionable and outmoded biblical interpretations and it flies in the face of very different interpretations by believers, non-believers and academics all over the world. To whatever extent we might believe the interpretation to be true, so should we recognize that the killing of disobedient children and wives, dismemberment for petty crimes, and other horrors were also taught but fortunately are also firmly rejected by what most of us today would consider as civil societies.

One of the most recent and eloquent statements on this topic was made by Ronald Reagan in 1984 while addressing Temple Hillel in Woodmere, Long Island, New York, Ronald Reagan stated, "we establish no religion in this country, we command no worship, we mandate no belief. Nor will we ever. Church and state are, and must remain, separate. All are free to believe or not believe, all are free to practice a faith or not, and those who believe are free and should be free, to speak of and act on their belief. At the same time as our constitution prohibits state religion, establishment of it protects the free exercise of all religions. And walking this fine line requires government to be strictly neutral."

And so while each of us is entitled to hold our own peculiar beliefs, we must also recognize that we are not entitled to inflict them on anyone else as facts or doctrine. That's the bedrock upon which we base our decision to vote "NO" on proposition one. In addition, we've had the good fortune to know same sex couples during our many years, in committed, happy relationships. Some have become good and loyal friends and in all cases are as deserving of the rights and privileges of marriage as anyone else.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION CHINESE AUCTION

To the Editor:

The Telstar Alumni Association will be having a Chinese Auction at the Legion Hall in Locke Mills on Saturday, Oct. 17, 2009.

Alumni, Family and Friends this is your opportunity to give something back. As you know, the Alumni Association raises money for Educational Assistance Awards and other activities that benefit the students at Telstar. We are asking for your help.

We are looking for new items, crafts or gift certificates to be raffled off at the auction. A great thing about this type of auction, items do not need to be solicited from just the area businesses. Anyone and everyone can donate. We need items small and large (remember that gift you didn't need or want). Small items may be gathered together in a basket. Larger items are raffled separately. We are also looking for items of greater value over $75 for the $1 ticket table. We need to collect over 300 items in order to make this a success.

Any donations would be greatly appreciated. And please join us for the Auction on Oct. 17. Our MC, Ross Timberlake, is always entertaining and you may win something too!

If you have any questions please call Sally at 875-3335, Cindy 824-2759 or Joe 533-2010 or e-mail Sally at sallys71@roadrunner.com. Thank you.

SOME WORDS ON H1N1

To the Editor:

I am sending this letter as a public education piece that I hope will be helpful.

The Pandemic H1N1 flu (mistakenly called the Swine Flu) is found around the world, which is why the World Health Organization (WHO) has declared it to be pandemic. As the Local Health Officer of Upton, I attended the Aug. 20, 2009 Maine CDC Summit on the H1N1 flu and learned about the enormous amount of work our local schools will have in trying to vaccinate all students with permission from their parents. At the summit, moderated by Dr. Dora Mills, director of the Maine CDC, we learned that 30-50 percent of all North Americans are expected to get the H1N1 flu if it is as severe as anticipated. Of that number, 90,000 deaths are statistically expected. The largest population group that will be affected by the disease will be our young people, pregnant women and healthcare workers who care for the ill. Healthcare workers and children from 6 months of age to 24 years old are strongly recommended to get their H1N1 flu vaccine when they first become available. People 25 to 64 years old with underlying chronic health issues will receive their H1N1 vaccine after the first group are reached. Those 65 and older are at the lowest risk. One difficulty of this vaccine is that it has to be given in two doses, about 30 days apart.

Anyone willing to volunteer to help with registration, monitoring the children for a few minutes after their injection, all other manner of paperwork and covering quick breaks of other workers should contact their local school's nurse (in the Bethel area, that would be Chris Cole, RN, BSN at 824-2136) to add your name to their list of possible volunteers. If you are a nurse with a current license, you may be needed as well on a volunteer basis to help with the injections.

As our Bethel Citizen has noted before, the usual Seasonal Flu vaccine is a different and separate flu vaccine that will not protect you from the H1N1 flu. You may need to receive both vaccines to protect you this flu season.

If you would like to have more information on how the flu spread, what the symptoms are and how to care for a sick person in your home, please go to the following website www.cdc.gov/h1n1flu/guidance\_homecare.htm. (There is a line between the words guidance and homecare that doesn't show up.) This site will also tell you how to lessen the spread of the flu in your home, where to place the sick person, how to protect other persons in your home, as well as the persons primarily caring for the sick person. It will instruct you on when to seek Emergency Medical Care. It will also instruct you how to do your household cleaning, laundry and wastes disposal. For more information, the CDC and Prevention hotline is 1-800-CDC-INFO and is available in English and Spanish, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Another website that has lots of information is www.pandemicflu.gov/health/index.html. This site is managed by the U.S. Dept of Health and Human Services.

Basic information to remember:

1. Wash your hands often. 2. Cover your mouth or nose with a tissue when you cough or sneeze. 3. Throw the tissue away and wash your hands again. 4. If you don't have a tissue, cough or sneeze into your upper sleeve. 5. Wash with soap and water or an alcohol based cleaner. 6. Stay at home if you are sick. Parents, please, if your child is running a fever in the morning, do not give the child a Tylenol and send him off to school to expose others.

representatives from Maine Handicapped Skiing to the Red Sox game.

"Darren is the perfect person to represent us," said Dana Bullen, general manager for Sunday River.

"I spent the day with him during the World Cup Snowboarding event this past spring and his enthusiasm for life is amazing. Darren is just an all-around great person and Sunday River couldn't be more proud to have someone like him represent our resort and Maine Handicapped Skiing."

Landing dedication, foliage flotilla Sunday

On Sunday afternoon the public is invited to celebrate recent improvements at Moran's Landing in Newry, and take part in the annual Fall Foliage Flotilla.

The celebration will precede the paddling flotilla down the Androscoggin, which is organized by The Mahoosuc Land Trust, The Androscoggin River Watershed Council and Stony Brook Recreation.

The flotilla will travel from Moran's Landing to the Hanover boat landing, located behind the Town Office.

The work at Moran's was undertaken by a consortium of groups in order to improve access to the Androscoggin River.

There is now better access for people with disabilities and for drift boats and other small boats.

The improvements were spearheaded by the Androscoggin River Watershed Council, with help from the Upper Androscoggin Anglers Association, the Mahoosuc Land Trust, and Maine Handicapped Skiing, the Land for Maine's Future fund and the Maine Department of Conservation.

Ferg Lea, chair of the Watershed Council said, "We owe the late Rocky Freda a note of special thanks for pulling many of the excavation businesses together to donate materials for the project. It really came together in the past couple of months and after putting some finishing touches on the work with the help of volunteers including a number from Maine Handicapped Skiing; it looks great."

Schedule

On Sunday, paddlers may gather at Moran's Landing at 12:30 p.m. for a vehicle shuttle to Hanover.

At 1 p.m. hot dogs and a few other refreshments will be served, courtesy of Stony Brook Recreation. The celebration will take place at 1:30 p.m.

A memorial to Freda, of Sun Valley Sports and the Upper Andro Anglers Association will also take place before boats are launched.

Moran's Landing is located just east of the Newry-Hanover town line where Route 26 turns off Route 2 to Grafton Notch.

There are directional signs on Route 2 for the Androscoggin Canoe Trail, and there is a boat launch sign at the entrance.

The flotilla should arrive at the Hanover take out around 3:30 p.m.

To register, or for more information, call 527-2163 or 824-3806.

This will be the second event in October celebrating the expansion of the Androscoggin Canoe Trail to a trail running the 168 mile length of the Androscoggin River.

The Watershed Council has been working with many of the site owners for the past two years to make the trail a reality.

N.H. celebration

On Saturday, a celebration will mark Larry Ely and Ginger Lawson's donation of a conservation easement on First Mountain in Shelburne, N.H.

The event will take place from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Shelburne Town Park. Apple crisp and cider will be served.

In case of inclement weather, the event will take place at the Town Hall.

Pre-celebration hikes will take place from noon to 2 p.m. Hikers may climb to the top of Joe's Ledges on First Mountain, or hike along the Androscoggin River.

(Hikers are asked to e-mail ginlawson@aol.com or call 207-415-4933.)

Troops license plate at risk

AUGUSTA—A specialty Maine license plate that shows support for U.S. troops is at risk of being retired because not enough of them have sold. State law says any specialty plate authorized after 2007 will be retired if the number of plates falls below 4,000 for more than a year. Secretary of State Matthew Dunlap says the "We Support Our Troops" plate has never met the statutory threshold since being issued two years ago. He says there are fewer than 3,600 of them on the road. Rep. Don Pilon of Saco, who spearheaded the effort to adopt the plate, is urging motorists to buy the plates to keep them on the road. Proceeds from sales go to help families of military personnel serving overseas.

Condor comment period extended

WESTFIELD, MASS.—The Air National Guard (ANG) has extended the public comment period until Jan. 1, 2010 for the draft Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) for the Modification of the Condor 1 and Condor 2 MOAs used by the 104th Fighter Wing, Massachusetts ANG. The Draft EIS addresses the potential environmental effects of modifying the Condor MOAs as follows: combine the Condor 1 and 2 MOAs, divide the combined military operating areas (MOA) into Condor Low MOA and Condor High MOA, and lower the flight floor of the proposed Condor Low MOA from 7,000 feet mean sea level (MSL) to 500 feet above ground level (AGL). Condor Low MOA would extend from 500 feet AGL up to, but not including, 7,000 feet MSL. Condor High MOA would extend from 7,000 feet MSL up to, but not including, 18,000 feet MSL. The draft EIS can be viewed online at (<http://www.maine.gov/mdot/angcondor/index.htm>) or: Rangeley Public Library: 7 Lake St., Rangeley, ME 04970. Rumford Public Library: 56 Rumford Ave, Rumford, ME 04276. Monson Public Library: 10 Tenney Hill, Monson, ME 04464. Bingham Union Library: 297 Main St., Bingham, ME 04920. Bremer Pond Memorial Library: 12 School St., Pittsburg, NH 03592. Anyone wishing to comment on the draft EIS may do so. Comments can be submitted via mail, e-mail, or telephone. To ensure consideration, comments should be received by Friday, Jan. 1, 2010 by Lt Col Mike Milford, National Guard Bureau Public Affairs, Jefferson Plaza 1, 1411 Jefferson Davis Hwy, Ste 11200, Arlington, Va. 20222, or via e-mail mike.milford1@us.army.mil; or by calling (703) 607-2780, and via fax (603) 607-3880. The Air National Guard will sponsor a public hearing on the Draft EIS at a date to be determined, but on or before Dec. 15, 2009. Notification of the date and time of the hearing will be made via local news venues and the Maine Department of Transportation website identified above.

The two officials initially appeared to work together harmoniously.

In 2006 Cole stood by Carr

The selectmen voted unanimously to take no action on the chief's complaints.

Selectman Don Bennett said at the time: "The fact of the matter is that in any of these happenings in town affairs, you just have the town manager suggesting different ways of doing things, and that is ultimately what he is hired for."

Earlier this year, however, the selectmen, exercising their own authority in personnel matters, opted not to renew Cole's contract, and Doar was hired.

This report highlights points of interest from the Bethel Police Department log. It lists cases reported in the log of adults being arrested or issued a summons in the 10 days prior to the newspaper's publication, but does not include all reports of police activity, such as routine speeding tickets and other civil violations. To reach the Bethel Police Department, call 911 in emergency situations, 824-3437 in non-emergencies.

Tips from the Bethel Police Department

1. If you dial 911 by mistake, don't hang up. Stay on the line and tell the dispatcher what happened.
2. So that responders can find you quickly in an emergency, make sure your house number is clearly visible from the road — on the house if it is near the road, or on a mailbox or post if the house sits more than 50 feet back.

Waiting for the Skateboard Park to Open Bethel's major contribution to area skateboarding is coming along well but its users are champing at the bit for it to be finished and opened. Not having any idea of park terminology, it seems like there will be three separate areas of specialized ramps, rails and half-pipes. If you have not seen the new concrete facilities, it is worth going out of your way to do so. The new park will be a major addition to recreational facilities for all who enjoy skateboarding. It is definitely not just an incremental upgrade from the old park, which had portable ramps, rails and jumps.

Gould Alumni Reunion Weekend

Being piped to lunch was a beautiful, pleasing touch added to this year's parade of old timers and recent grads. Hillary Hough, Class of 2007, did the honors with Scottish bagpipes and traditional highland attire. With refreshing fall temperatures and bright sunshine, Hillary's playing and crisp mountain scenery must have given the column of reunioners feelings of "here we are home again." — Robert Burns, The Bard, himself might have shed a tear of nostalgia over the whole scene.

Anyway back down to earth — the gathering of about 250 alumni for Saturday's luncheon seemed to have been a happy occasion for all.

We saw Jerry Davis, the academy's athlete of athletes, in the line to lunch ahead of us. He was here for his sixtieth reunion and to receive Gould's Hall of Fame honors. Mary Anne and Charlie Smith also back for the reunion had just celebrated their 50th anniversary this summer. The Class of 1954 was marking their 55th year and my cousin Joan Bennett Saxe was here — had not seen her for a few years. She had been to Mexico recently to see her son, Doug. From my class Jan Lord Mott and her son Roger plus Roger and Nancy Adams gave increasingly ancient '52 representation. But Bob Keniston was also there, and he really does represent the ancient alumni.

Charlie Smith, MD, was wearing his Gould special blue and gold super athlete's award sweater. At some point during the weekend he was going to "retire" it by giving the sweater to Becky Cummings in the Alumni Office (for the office museum?). He told us that Jerry Davis and Dick Ireland, 1949 grads, were awarded the first sweaters. After receiving either six consecutive sport's achievement letters or seven in all, the student received the special letter. These recognitions continued until 1967.

Charlie played quarterback in football along with Dick Marshall. Charlie was the passer and it didn't take long for another team to figure out what would happen if Smith appeared behind the center on lineup. One year the coach, Bob Scott, added plays with both quarterbacks behind the center, although one had to be a step further back to stay within the rules.

For Jeopardy fans and history buffs, the academy had prepared an eleven stop self-guided tour and campus history quiz for alumni. You had to visit the tour stop to get the right answer. One probably long-forgotten building the questions brought to mind was the Thunderbird Motel. Who remembers where that creature stood? Good questions! Will have to dig out a photo of the first Holden Hall where girls stayed in the house and boys in the barn.

Bethel Inn News

Weddings, bus tour groups and meetings have kept the inn busy. A bride from Rumford and a groom from Hanover celebrated their big day with a reception and dinner at the inn with over 200 guests attending.

Tourmappers — Thomas Cook tours have begun their weekly overnight stops with each tour having 35 to 40 people. Tour travelers are frequently seen strolling Main Street this time to year.

A Newpage Paper Knowledge Program of twenty people arrived on Sept. 21 and stayed Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday meeting in the Gibson Room. The group traveled out for woodland tours and enjoyed a lobster bake at the inn's Lake House.

Western Maine Economic Development with 16 people met at the inn on Tuesday, Sept. 22; this group was put together by Community Concepts.

This weekend just past a wedding party over 80 or more from the Stoneham, Mass., area came to the inn for first a rehearsal dinner cookout at the Songo Pond Beach House followed the next day by the wedding ceremony on the inn grounds followed by dinner.

Planning Board September Cases

According to board minutes posted in the town's website, Bethel Planning Board considered two development projects this month: the Otter Brook Subdivision whose agent is Main-Land Development and the Gehring House Apartments and Condominiums who is represented by Sarah Tucker. The party that is the applicant in this case is the Kennebec Land Co., LLC represented by Paul Boghosian.

Discussions have involved Bob Chadbourne, John Laban representing the Fairway Townhouses and Scott Gould all of whom have abutting property. Entrance to this development will be via Fairway Road. The additions to the Gehring House property will include a carriage house and duplex townhouses. The new owner purchased additional land from Savage Land Development including a right of way from Fairway Road.

Sadly, we had to head back to South Station after only a three-hour visit, so that we could get back to feed and water Jake, who was all by his lonesome. In spite of its shortness, it was a good visit and worth the time and trouble.

October has arrived! Cool nights but still some beautiful weather during the day.

Construction on Route 2 is progressing. They have been blasting the ledge just below town. Every once in a while we hear the horns and then feel the blast when the dynamite goes off. There is just a slight rumble that goes through the house.

My brother, Steve McLain, came up a little early to help set up for the annual meeting of the GHS this past weekend. Bob and Judy Bishop came to help also. I really appreciated it since I am still taking it easy getting over my knee surgery.

Gerard Dupont took an unexpected trip to the hospital last week. It is a relief to know that he is doing well and will probably be home by the time this column gets in the paper.

DBA: The Victoria Inn

Certified Specialist of Wine

Stacy Sahin of The Victoria Inn in Bethel recently qualified as a Certified Specialist of Wine at the first level. Sahin, who is self-taught, earned the designation through the Court of Master Sommeliers in Boston, passing a three-day exam. Her added expertise enhances her ability to aid guests in selecting wines at the Victoria, she said, which has more than 200 selections (824-8060; www.thevictoria-inn.com). She also travels around Maine advising other restaurants.

ber Ray and Joline Ferron, who ran Ferron's Country Store in town many years ago. (Now the home of Matt and Nikki Petillo.) Joline passed away on Sunday, Sept. 20, 2009. Condolences go out to all of her family, especially, her husband, Raymond Ferron, of Oxford; her sons, Patrick McKinney of Oxford and Michael McKinney of Gilead; and her daughter, Amy Ferron of Norway.

Recreation Committee
There is a new group that has formed because they are interested in providing recreation for the children in the town. They are going to have a meeting on Monday, Oct. 5, at the Town Office at 3:30 p.m. Alicia McLean stated that they would like to have more people come to this meeting and share their ideas. Everyone is welcome.

Special Town Meeting
The Special Town Meeting was held last Saturday at 7 p.m. at the Town Hall. Paul Handlen served as moderator. There were 20 voters present. It was decided to raise the $18,000 in order to be able to complete the necessary work at the Transfer Station. The vote was 19 yes and 1 no.

As far as the Flood Plain Ordinance went, the article was voted down. The town already has a Flood Plain Ordinance in effect. What needs to be done is to update that ordinance and that is being taken care of. The meeting adjourned at 7:26 p.m.

Gilead Historical Society
David Berry came last Friday with his crew and finished up with the siding on the school. They also put on the bulkhead, made stairs to the basement and put in the basement door.

Hugh built a temporary ramp so there would be better access to the building. There is still more work to be done on the cleanup of the lot, so whatever we do has to be temporary.

The Annual Meeting was held last Saturday at the Town Hall. There were about 30 people who attended. The Potluck Lunch had a variety of hot dishes, salads and desserts to choose from. Everything was delicious. It was decided at the meeting to do the same thing again next year, especially if the same cooks brought food again!

After the meeting, there was a brief discussion on memories of attending the Gilead School. The memories ranged from learning in the classroom to playing on the playground. The GHS hopes to gather some memories and put them together in a little booklet to have ready for next June at Friends and Family Day.

After a little reminiscing, most of the group went over to tour the schoolhouse. This brought back some more school memories for some of the people.

Wednesday of last week Mona and I made the big leap into purchasing a new car. Thursday morning she drove it to Bethel, where she was to play bridge with the ladies club at the Sudbury Inn. I was busy guiding Craig Ryerson's crew in replacing the support posts for my outdoor deck. At about 9 a.m. I received a phone call from Mona. She was upset and wanted me to contact Berlin City Motors about the new car.

When I asked why, she replied that when she got to the Sudbury, it looked like there had been a fire or something in the central console that caused the glass in the display there to turn brown as if burned!

I agreed to contact Berlin City to make an appointment for first thing the next morning. When I phoned, I was asked if we could have the car there at 11 a.m. Friday.

At around 4 p.m. Thursday, Mona phoned again and said the console panel looked okay at that time and everything seemed to be working okay. Then she asked if I would call Berlin City and cancel the next day's appointment.

Friday morning we got into the car and headed down the Kings Highway with me at the wheel. As we headed up the hill toward "The Farm," Mona said, "It's happening again. Look at the glass in that panel display; it's starting to turn brown just like it did yesterday!" I glanced at the panel, "I don't see anything unusual!" "Well, look at the edge of the glass on this little window." "I don't see anything. Maybe it's your sunglasses."

Removing her sunglasses, she said, "Oh! I guess it was my sunglasses that made it look funny all the time!" "I think you'd better phone Paul (the car salesman) and tell him what happened."

She did, and they both had a good laugh over that!

On Tuesday this week, we drove to Augusta to look in on the LURK (Land Regulation Commission) hearing at the Senator Inn. I was interested to hear/see what changes they were planning for the regulations governing rules for developing land in the 10-million acres of land in the unorganized territory, mostly in the northern areas of the state, but also including unorganized townships in other areas, such as Mason. At this public hearing I found out that they were entertaining comments on the draft version of the 2009 Comprehensive Land Use Plan (CLUP). After listening to four presenters, we decided this wasn't what we had expected, so we headed back home. At least we got a CD containing the CLUP and some other stuff about hearing schedules and deadlines for making written comments. In reading some of this information, I developed a feel for how complex the issue is and how difficult it is to reach a consensus with so many different and diverse groups with often-conflicting opinions as to how to proceed.

I urge any of you with interests or concerns about LURC's "Comprehensive Land Use Plan" and revisions to it to attend their next public hearing now planned for early November.

Monday morning this week I went down to put some of our kitchen compost in the garden; when I approached the gate, I noticed that the three new 8-foot-high fence posts I put in this spring had been bent over and a large hole appeared in the stock fencing I had used. Although I couldn't find any tracks, I'm sure a moose had got itself entangled and inflicted the above described damage. This is the same place where a young moose had gotten entangled early in the summer and broke the three posts that were previously there! I'm beginning to think this must be a favorite moose crossing, and they are so blind they can't see the 8-foot-high fence!

Do you, or anyone you know, live more than 8 miles from a fire station and have homeowner's insurance?

Do you, or anyone you know, live in a home without central heat and have the home insured?

Do you, or anyone you know, live in a home without electricity and still have homeowner's?

We've been repeatedly denied insurance for one or more of these excuses. One company might insure us, at an extremely high premium, in spite of our "sub-standard" living conditions, thank you very much! Anyway, if you can relate to any of these circumstances, it would help us to know. Please e-mail me at lauriebrown400@gmail.com, or write us at 400 Back Street, Upton, Maine 04261.

Donuts will be fried and muffins will be baked in the Ladies Aid kitchen on Nov. 14 for the Hunter's Breakfast! The delicious aromas will greet you even before you taste the scrumptious food, which will be ready at 4:30 a.m.

I found an intriguing recipe in a Colonial Cookbook for "Walnut Catsup." It calls for 120 green walnuts "gathered when a pin could prick one," 4 cups of "good vinegar," and requires stirring at least once a day for a fortnight. When it's finally boiled and strained, it requires new corks dipped in melted wax before sealing the bottles. Whew! I've never tasted walnut catsup, but I don't think I'd like it enough to make it.

A good turnout for the East Bethel Church service on Sept. 27. Mr. Conant did a good sermon for us.

Millie Jackson went to Danielle Heppell and Garrett Olson's wedding on Sept. 26 in Brunswick. A nice day to drive down.

Millie Jackson attended her 65th reunion at Gould Academy.

Lynn Mason-Courtney and

I drove up to Upton, Wilson's Mills and Azischoos Dam on Sept. 21. I thought we might find some color. There was less color up in those regions than there was coming down Blake Hill and through the swamp from Locke's. It was a beautiful day for a drive down through 13 Mile Woods.

If you have any news, please give me a ring at 824-3350. God Bless the Troops.

Hanover

by Clem Worcester

Wyatt Worcester turned one-year-old last weekend. We wish him a happy birthday. He is the son of Daren and Fran Worcester of Hooksett, N.H., and the grandson of Bill and Gail Worcester. A party in his honor took place in New Gloucester last Saturday.

On Sept. 20 Donna, Clem and Brian Worcester traveled to New Gloucester to take up membership in Rumford Grange. The ceremony took place at Sabbathday Lake Grange. Also attending to help with the event were Wendell Easter, Vicki Clark and Sara Worcester.

We extend sympathy to the Easter family upon the recent passing of Gerald Easter who resided on Ellis River Road.

Remember to attend the public hearing starting at 6 p.m. on Oct. 8 in the Hanover Town House on the Howard Pond Road. The hearing is to give the citizens an opportunity to learn about and discuss the proposed comprehensive plan. The Hanover voters will be asked to vote on the plan at the annual Town Meeting scheduled for Oct. 20 in the Town House at 6 p.m.

On Sept. 23 Hanover Town Clerk Clem Worcester and Deputy Clerk Kelly Harrington traveled to Portland to attend an elections workshop.

There was probably a lot of news from around town that could have been reported if only I had not been out of the area. Last Thursday, Donna and Clem went to Calais, Maine. That evening Clem attended a meeting in Eastport. On Friday events began for the Pythian International Jubilee that is sometimes referred to as "Hands Across the Border." Events continued throughout Saturday between Calais and St. Stephen, New Brunswick wrapping up in the evening. Traveling from the Eastern to the Atlantic time zones had us all confused. Others from this area that attended were Freeman Farrington from Andover and Michael Bennett with Danny and Janice Bennett from Milton Township.

On Sunday everyone headed home. Donna and Clem stopped in Columbia on the way and visited with J.J. Tibbetts, who was helping his parents build their new house.

Vicki Lowell and her horse, Court N Spark aka Joni, finished Reserved Champion at the year-end Downeast Medals Show at Skowhegan the weekend of Sept. 19 and 20.

Eric Lowell is playing on Telstar Middle School varsity soccer this fall. He can claim at least one goal so far this year.

The next meeting of Windy Valleys Snowmobile Club will be held this Sunday, Oct. 4, at 7 p.m. at the Newry Town Office. The 2009-2010 agenda for the club is available at the Town Office. Anyone interested in snowmobile riding is welcomed to attend.

Locke Mills

by Lorraine Larson

only this time it is the printer, I managed to jam a piece of paper in it as I was trying to help it grab a piece. It seems to have trouble with this new lot of paper I got, but that is beside the point now because it stopped altogether and I can't even get any power to it. There doesn't seem to be anything like a fuse on it and no reset button anywhere. If anyone has any suggestions, even pitching it in the lake, I could use some; except, obviously, because DEF would frown on it, I can't pitch it in the lake, that was just my feeble attempt at humor. It's even got Ralph styled and he's usually pretty good at troubleshooting, and since he has dealt many years with computers, only I could come up with a problem he has never seen before.

Since our Sunday school teacher has been teaching "faith in action" I have sort of been an unofficial, untrained secretary to the pastor. That being said, I am presently getting the word out that we are once again doing our Thanksgiving give-away. We started out with doing 40 boxes, last year we did 85 and this year we have a goal of at least 100 boxes. If you cannot afford, or you know of anyone who cannot afford, a turkey, or a chicken, if they prefer, and fixings, you can call Pastor Justin at 364-8856, or me at 875-2924. We will need the name and address and the number of people if it is a family. We give gift certificates to those who can get to a store, since it is rather difficult to handle that many birds in the flesh, so to speak, but if one positively does not have any way to get the certificates redeemed at the store, usually Hannaford's, we will try to get it for you. Your name will be kept confidential (and by the time we get the boxes all packed and delivered we are lucky if we can remember our own names much less anyone else's, and are delivered to wherever you name, within 35 miles of Rumford anyway, usually the Saturday before Thanksgiving.

Since I finally got the computer game I have to go to the highest level on the adventure part of the game I have started on the gauntlet part. I went in and took a look without the foggiest notion I could do anything on a part that said gauntlet. To my surprise it had a choice between "practice" and "survival." Now I know I cannot do anything called "survival" but I tried "practice," which I have discovered only has four levels and ends with one called "Sun God," and since my Bible says, "You shall have no other gods before Me (Lord God Jehovah), I am perfectly content not to become a Sun God if I could get there, which I definitely cannot because I seldom even reach that level. You can choose whatever you want to play such as "Spirals" or "Triangles" and others, and that is great because I really enjoy something called "Osprey Talon" and find I usually can get through the first two levels and sometimes the third. It is still an addictive sort of game so I have to set a limit on myself, but at least I now have choices and that is always good.

Rowena Dunham was to be released from Stephens Memorial Hospital today, Friday, the 25th, after being admitted Wednesday with what was thought to be a mini-stroke. I cannot imagine any kind of stroke as being "mini," so that is their word not mine. We all wish and pray for a speedy recovery for her. No more strokes, enough already!

By the time you read this my daughter, Marcia, should be visiting me for a couple weeks, so if anyone would like to see her or give her a call you know where to reach her. Unfortunately, because I no longer have a car she is not able to get around much except for where her two feet can carry her. She always did like to walk and still does, although by her own admission, not as far as she used to!

I got a call from my cousin, Frank Flint, the other day in response to my phone message expressing concern over the flooding in his area, since he lives in Duluth, Ga., not far from Atlanta. He said he was high and dry but some areas were hit very hard. They had been having a drought for several years and that had packed the ground, which is a lot clay anyway, which didn't help. Then they got 20 inches of rain.

That certainly is a recipe for flooding if I ever heard one. He also said his sister Carol's husband, Dan Hatch, was doing well following his umpteenth surgery and treatment for throat cancer. They plan to visit Frank and Suzi in October and then go on to Texas to visit their son and wife, Michael and Melissa, and two children, Maddie and Mitch, just in time to help celebrate the children's birthdays. Since Carol is handicapped from a couple of strokes she has suffered over the years and Dan has had all that cancer they have good courage, and a faith in God that never wavers even in the bad times, to make a trip like that.

Well, I had better get this into an e-mail and get it sent off. My e-mails never get sent off until all my incoming messages are in the box, and that can be up to 150 a day that are mostly advertising, so I have to leave time to get them sent. Have a good week and enjoy the fall, winter is coming soon enough!

East Andover

by Joan Stinson-Carney
Beginning today at 4:30, and then at the same time on the first Thursday of every month during the school year, the Andover Public Library will be having "Teen Time." Students in grades six through twelve are invited to get together and chat about what they are reading and what types of reading materials they would like to be able to find at the library. For more information you can call the library at 392-4841. I think this is a great idea and hope that lots of people take advantage of it. As most of the people who know me know that next to chocolate my favorite thing is reading.

Freeman Farrington spent a few days last week out of town attending Knights of Pythias meetings. Norma worked on her third quilt.

The Calvary Bible Church Bible Study is up and running again. Meetings are held every Monday morning at Mary Bailey's. The meeting starts at 9:30, and I hear the snack is always good. New members are always welcome.

The following is a true story. A teacher was reading the tale of "The Three Little Pigs" to her kindergarten class. She got to the part where one of the pigs asked a farmer for some straw to build his house, and then she asked "what do you think happened next?" A six-year-old boy raised his hand and said, "The farmer said my goodness, I didn't know that pigs could talk."

Five members of the Class of '59 met for lunch last Monday in Bethel. We had a good time. Jean Cushing Akers made it down from New Hampshire. June Farrington Trenoworth, Winona Myshrrall Stecher, Raylene Learned Richard, my mother, Marjorie Stinson, and I joined her. No, my mother didn't graduate in '59, but please don't tell her that. See 'ya.

Albany

by Sheila Dyke
Greetings and hello from Albany Township. Yes, fall is indeed here. But, the weather has been rather pleasant, although it is rather sad to see the leaves falling from the trees and the flowers dying off. But, what lovely colors are coming out!

The Albany Improvement Association is holding an open house at the Town Hall on Oct. 4 at 2 p.m. to celebrate the building's inclusion into the National Register of Historic Places. There will be refreshments served and speakers.

Best wishes for a happy and safe week. God Bless and Keep.

High School Boys' Varsity Soccer

St. Dom's 6, Telstar 1; Sept. 29—Telstar's Tyler Brown scored the lone Rebel goal in a loss to undefeated St. Dom's. Dan Vaughn had 14 saves in goal.

Kents Hill 2, Gould 0; Sept. 24—The Gould Academy team show great improvement and was able to maintain possession of the ball for long stretches of the game. They utilized the width of the field to create chances to score. The Gould defense was able to contain the Kents Hill forwards for most of the game and begin the attack once they won the ball. Unfortunately, Kents Hill was able to score in the 19th minute after intercepting a poor pass in the back and then again in the 35th minute when Gould was unable to clear the ball out of its own eighteen yard box. Jack Alosa used his speed and field awareness to make many timely tackles in the back to prevent Kents Hill from scoring. Robby Murry had to play goalie the second half and did well to make sure Kents Hill did not score. Nick Milliken, Jesse Tutor, Cooper Quenneville, Jeb Clarke and Tim Gewiss also played critical roles in today's game. — from Gould sports reports

High School Boys' J.V. Soccer

Gould 3, CVA 3; Sept. 26—After CVA going up 2-1 in the first half, the Gould JVA boys rallied hard in the second half with an early goal. Deep into the second half Gould went ahead, and it looked like they would take the win. But a high deflected spinning ball found the GA net. Final score 3-3. Gould goals scored by Dougie Gardener and 2 for Owen. With 2 assists from Shea McCarthy who gave the CVA defense a scare everytime he got the ball. Every player on the team played well, and should feel proud of a draw away from home. — from Gould sports reports

High School Varsity Field Hockey

Cowin 2 (one penalty stroke), Kayla Merrill 1, and Kallie Brown 1. Assists were by T.J. 3, Lindsay James 2, and Emma Davis. Keeping St. Dom's to no shots, the defense played a strong game. — Coach Gail Wright

A little while later, Newkirk scored the second goal. Forward line players Kallie Brown, Brianna Santos, and Gaby Conrad did a great job carrying the ball down the field. Echo Hoyt, Amanda Thurston, and Carlee Beatson gave the offense the support they needed. On the defensive end, fullbacks Mary Mason and Heather Miller kept the ball away from goalkeeper Tabitha Corriveau, helping her earn the shutout. — Coach Lori Davis

West Paris

by Joyce Lamb
It has been a nice warm fall so far with a bit of rain to keep the forest fire level low. One morning the lawn was white with frost but my plants were safe on the porch. They must have welcomed the warm sun for the orange and also red begonias keep on blooming.

At the West Paris Universalist on Oct. 4 the Rev. Richard Beal will lead the service at 9 a.m. Jim Burke is the organist. A coffee hour follows. All are welcome.

The apples have ripened, so many cooks are busy making pies and applesauce. Pears have also ripened and are juicy. Most gardens are black, for the frost killed most everything. Maine's growing season is about over.

All are enjoying our early morning walks, for it has been sunny and cool and pleasant for the last week.

Several have left for Fryeburg Fair to work during the busy week. They take their campers to live in, for the days are long and there isn't time to drive back and forth every day. After being away all summer and working at the Oxford County Fair for the week, I may not go for my usual two days there. I do like to be home some.

Muffin has slept in for the last few days letting me get a bit more sleep these early morning dark days.

Waterford

by Rockie Graham
It is October and truly fall. The mornings are cool and the after noons warm. Right now we are in a rain time, but we do need the water.

Monday night, for reasons as yet unknown, all of us in the area lost electricity — Waterford, Norway, North Norway and I am not sure how many other towns. In any case, I guess we all went to bed early so as not to move around in the dark.

There was a great quote in the Sun the other day. I will copy it for my quote of the week. "When the power of love becomes more important than the love of power, we shall have peace." I like that. It is something to think about and maybe live by.

Last Friday my friend Mary Kay and I went to the Common Ground Fair. It was great fun. We walked for what seemed like forever and saw all kinds of exhibits. Food was pricey but good. We didn't attend any of the talks, but spoke with many people at their exhibits.

Sunday, the 4th, there is a public Dedication and Social Hour at 2 p.m. to celebrate the Albany Town House being put on the National Registry of Historic Places. There will be speakers, refreshments and historic displays.

On Monday, the 5th, at Waterford Library from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. there will be a Socrates Café. The topic will be Climate Change: How Do We Prepare for the Triad. FMI call 583-6957.

JEEP JAMBOREE COMING—The 20th annual Maine Mountain Jeep Jamboree and Parade will take place in Bethel this weekend. There will be fireworks Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the Bethel Inn. On Saturday at 9 a.m. a parade of approximately 145 Jeeps will make their way up Main Street.

From
Saturday, the 3rd, there will be Rabies Vaccinations and Microchipping Clinic at Responsible Pet Care from 9 to 11 a.m. Cost is $10 for rabies and $25 for Microchipping. That will aid in finding lost pets. FMI call 743-8879.

Enjoy these fall days and get your wood ready for this winter. It will be here before we know it.

From Bethel Historical Society's Regional History Center

On Saturday, Sept. 26, the Bethel Historical Society participated in the fifth annual Museum Day, presented by Smithsonian magazine. A celebration of culture, learning and the dissemination of knowledge, Smithsonian's Museum Day reflects the spirit of the magazine, and emulates the free admission policy of the Smithsonian Institution's Washington, D.C.-based properties.

In 2008, upwards of 200,000 people attended Museum Day, with all 50 states plus Puerto Rico represented by over nine hundred museums, including eighty-four Smithsonian affiliate museums. This year the magazine expected to attract over 1,000 museums.

"Museum Day offered an opportunity to celebrate all we have to offer here in Bethel with our period house museum, exhibits and historical film presentations among other attractions," said Stanley R. Howe, executive director. "This participation attracted new people to come and gain insights into life in western Maine and northern New Hampshire — right here in the center of northern New England," Howe added.

Free admission to the Dr. Moses Mason House Museum was offered attendees presenting the Museum Day Admission Card to the guide at the museum. Each card provided museum access for two people.

At 2 p.m. in anticipation of a forthcoming ski exhibit later this fall at the Society, Scott Andrews, a Portland-based ski journalist and board member of the Ski Museum of Maine, presented a free illustrated talk tracing the history of skiing in Maine from its origins as basic winter transportation in Aroostook County's Swedish Settlement to present-day happenings all over the state. In the early 20th century, skiing evolved into a sport and by the late 1960s, it was one of the most popular recreational activities in Maine.

Many thanks go to the volunteers who helped make the 2009 Museum Day possible: guides Nancy Mercer and Al Marcotte; museum shop attendants Jackie Bell and Vicki Smith.

October Lecture
On Thursday, Oct. 8, beginning at 7:30 p.m., Randall H. Bennett will present a lecture entitled "Starr King's The White Hills and 19th Century White Mountain Tourism." Assistant Director and Curator of Collections of the Bethel Historical Society, Bennett is the author of two books about the history of the White Mountain region, and has been an avid collector of White Mountain books, prints, paintings, photos and souvenirs for over 30 years.

This program commemorates the 150th anniversary of the publication of Reverend Thomas Starr King's seminal guidebook, "The White Hills; Their Legends, Landscape and Poetry (1859)." Reprinted many times, King's book ran over 400 pages and provided visitors to the White Mountains with an interesting mixture of nature description, scientific information, historical narrative and philosophical meditation.

Using the town of Gorham, N.H., as a base, King (who first visited the White Mountains in 1849) began writing a series of articles about the mountains in 1853 for the Boston Transcript; these articles formed the basis for his 1859 work, which became an immediate critical and popular success.

In Starr King's day, tourists were encouraged to experience sublime or picturesque scenery by developing a "correct frame of mind"; to do this, visitors stood in pre-selected spots near waterfalls, precipices or before broad mountain vistas and quoted poetry by the romantic poets — Byron, Wordsworth, Longfellow, Emerson and others. Thus, King's book, while describing the physical attractions of the White Mountains (including the Bethel to Fryeburg section of Oxford County, Maine), presents this famed landscape through the lens of romantic verse.

During his talk, Bennett will place King's book in context with other 19th century guidebooks to the region, while describing changes in White Mountain tourism from the 1820s to the 1890s. Part of the 2009 series is sponsored in part by a grant from the Maine Humanities Council; the lecture is free and open to anyone interested.

 So Ben, did you enjoy your Labor Day Holiday with me?
 Yeah, Jerry, it was swell! Couldn't ask for better weather; however, the typical American Laborer has been doing sooooo much for very little compensation, especially as of late. The financial losses of the American people, particularly those in the middle class have been horrific in the last year, while the uber rich get richer and the government favored "bail-out" enterprises thrive.
 Toughen Up, Ben! Nobody promised anyone a rose garden. Besides which, now's the time to gather up lemons and make lemonade! As I have repeatedly stated during the last several months, there are DEALS out there for the Savvy! Why, take the North Pond area, for instance... Camps no sooner get listed and they are under contract, like the two on the Old Gore Road. And how about that charming new listing on North Pond with 170' of beautiful sandy frontage? Yeah, that special property neighbors that of the very popular local crooner, whose voice is "like velvet". Imagine waking up to his soothing tones? You're right, Jerry, there are great deals out there!

Donna L. Bernard, 67, of Andover, Maine and Englewood, Fla., died peacefully on Monday, Sept. 21, 2009 at the Hospice House in Auburn with her family by her side. She had been diagnosed with pancreatic cancer in May of 2008.

She was born in Lewiston, Maine on Jan. 3, 1942, the daughter of Charles and Pauline (Harrington) Smith. She was the second of two children. She was educated in Bethel and was a graduate of Gould Academy.

She was a stay-at-home mom for several years raising four daughters and later was employed at Tri County Mental Health in Rumford as a receptionist, a job she proudly held for 30 years.

She was an active retiree and enjoyed traveling, camping, bowling, clogging, and line dancing. She bowled on Rumford leagues for many years and was a member of the Scoggin' Cloggers performing at area facilities and events. She camped for several seasons at South Arm Campground and loved to go boating on Richardson Lake with her husband, friends and family.

She was a lover of music and dancing and was a consummate social butterfly, always the life of the party. She was a karaoke queen and often hosted karaoke parties at her home in Englewood, Fla., in the company of beloved friends. She truly had too many friends to count and was loved by everyone she met here in Maine and Florida. She loved to socialize and entertain.

In a third-grade essay, she wrote, "I like everyone, and I hope everyone likes me." Simply put, that is exactly who she was. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend. She will be missed more than words can ever express, and our memories of her will forever be kept close in all of our hearts.

She is survived by her husband of 24 years, James Bernard of Andover and Englewood, Fla.; her four daughters, Julie Martin and her partner Debbie Landa of Auburn, Jackie Thibeau and her husband Bruce of Bridgton, Jeri Manson and her partner Glenda Fox of Key West, Fla., Janel Jeselskis and her husband Richard of Cudjoe Key, Fla.; four grandchildren, Katie, Tyler, Nicole and Megan, two great-grandchildren, Brooklyn and Kobe; her brother, Gary Smith of Freeport; two stepdaughters, Lisa Saxton and her husband Brian of Michigan, Michele Sanzari and her husband Vincent and their two children Michael and Nicholas of Falmouth. The family would like to express their immense gratitude to the Staff of Androscoggin Home Health Care & Hospice at the Hospice House for their caring and kindness.
